Terry Lower

A virtuoso jazz pianist with his own sound, Terry Lower swings hard, has complete control of the keyboard, and is consistently creative. He has been a fixture on the Michigan jazz scene for years and is a dazzling soloist and a superior accompanist. In recent times, Terry has been performing in Michigan at concerts, jazz clubs, festivals and recording sessions. He often plays with and arranges for his own trio and quintet.

Tad Weed

Tad Weed is a powerhouse of a pianist whose artistically rich and diverse background allows him to command a wide range of styles, from Be Bop to the Blues, and from Funk to the Avant Garde. He has played concerts, clubs, television and radio around the world, in such exotic places as Brazil and China, as well as Holland, England, France, Germany and Finland. Tad is also in demand as an educator and has given clinics throughout the USA.
